Announcement of the Qing Ming (Tomb-sweeping) Ceremony

The Qing Ming (Tomb-sweeping) Ceremony will be held by CYM at the Great Buddha Hall on April 4, 2010 from 10:00a.m. to 4:30 p.m. We will be chanting the Sutra of the Past Vows of the Earth Store Bodhisattva and making offering to the Buddha. We cordially invite you to set up red longevity tablets and yellow memorial tablets (offer prayers) to receive blessings and to deliver the deceased from suffering and to sponsor vegetarian meals for fellow participants.

Qing Ming, which means “clear and bright” in Chinese, is both the fifth term in the traditional lunar calendar and a memorial ceremony for the dead. We invite you to join in this special practice out of gratitude to your ancestors and also for your own benefit.

May you be well and happy.

With loving-kindness,
Chuang Yen Monastery
